|--|--------------------------------|-------|
| 7TH HEAVEN | James Patterson, Maxine Paetro | Sept. |
| The Women's Murder Club is back in action in an electrifying new thriller - chasing a killer with a taste for fire. | | |
| ABDUCTION | Mark Gimenez | Sept. |
| Ben Brice lives alone in the New Mexico wilderness where he builds furniture and battles memories of Vietnam with oceans of Jim Beam. Miles away, in Texas, Brice's granddaughter is kidnapped. The FBI gets called, as does Ben Brice. | | |
| ABSTINENCE TEACHER | Tom Perrotta | Oct. |
| The ABSTINENCE TEACHER illuminates the powerful emotions that run beneath the placid surface of modern American family life, and explores the complicated spiritual and sexual lives of ordinary people. | | |
| AGNES AND THE HITMAN | Jennifer Crusie and Bob Mayer | Aug. |
| Take one food writer named Cranky Agnes, add a hitman named Shane, mix them together with a Southern mob wedding, a missing necklace, two annoyed flamingos, and a dog named Rhett and you've got a sexy, hilarious bestseller from the team of Crusie and Mayer. | | |
| ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT | Suzanne Brockmann | Oct. |
| In ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT Suzanne Brockmann delivers an unforgettable Christmas wedding, unforgivable scandals, and an insatiable, unexpected romance. | | |
| ALMOST MOON | Alice Sebold | Oct. |
| This searing, fast-paced novel explores the complex ties between mothers and daughters, wives and lovers, the meaning of devotion, and the line between love and hate. It is a challenging, moving, gripping story, written with the fluidity and strength of voice that only Alice Sebold can bring to the page. | | |
| AMAZING GRACE | Danielle Steel | Oct. |
| The lives of four unforgettable characters collide as a shocking natural disaster transforms each of them forever, leading them on journeys of change and revelation, courage and grace. | | |
| ANGELA AND THE BABY JESUS | Frank McCourt | Nov. |
| Six year old Angela looks at the naked baby Jesus in her local church in Limerick, Ireland, circa 1912, and thinks he looks cold. She decides to take him to her bedroom and wrap him in her own blanket. The journey home is a bit difficult and when the disappearance is discovered, the whole parish is very, very upset. But Angela does carry the baby back to church, and all turns out well. This book has 32 pages. | | |
| ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR OF HORACE RUMPOLE | John Mortimer | Nov. |
| Anti-social behaviour orders may be the pride and joy of New Labour, but they don't cut much ice with Horace Rumpole - he takes the old fashioned view that if anyone is going to be threatened with a restriction of their liberty then some form of legal proceeding ought to be gone through first. | | |
| ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA | Colleen McCullough | Oct. |
| Passion, politics, love and death combine in a novel of the legendary love triangle between the three leaders of Rome: Cleopatra, Mark Antony and Octavian, from the bestselling author of THE THORN BIRDS. | | |

| | | | |
|--|--------------------|---|-------|
| ARCHITECTS ARE HERE | Michael Winter | | Sept. |
| In THE ARCHITECTS ARE HERE , Winter's fifth and most emotionally resonant work to date, he explores the nature of grief and friendship in unwaveringly powerful prose and considers who we are and how we go on when the future seems uncertain. | | | |
| ARCTIC EVENT | Robert Ludlum | | Sept. |
| Lt. Col. Jon Smith, an army researcher specializing in infectious diseases and secretly a Covert-One agent, leads a team of scientists to remote Wednesday Island, an icy patch of land off the north coast of Canada. There they stumble upon the remains of a mysterious spy plane containing deadly anthrax. But Smith and his colleagues aren't alone in their discovery, and when Russian pirates take over the island and members of the expedition start disappearing, the remaining men must summon every resource to try and escape with their lives. | | | |
| ART THIEF | Noah Charney | | Sept. |
| In the course of THE ART THIEF , three separate thefts are simultaneously investigated in three separate cities, but these apparently isolated crimes have much more in common than anyone imagines. A dizzying series of forgeries, over-paintings, thefts, and double-crosses unfold. A collection of small pieces that can be fitted together to form a single, dazzling image. When the scope and intricacy of this final image is revealed, it is indeed breathtaking. | | | |
| ASSASSIN'S SONG | M. G. Vassanji |  | Aug. |
| The magnificent new novel from two-time Giller-winning author M.G. Vassanji, a sweeping story set in India and North America. | | | |
| BAD GIRL MAGDALENE | Jonathan Gash | | Oct. |
| Kneeling to receive Communion one Sunday, it suddenly dawns on Magda Finnan how she can earn God's blessing. She vows to kill Father Doran. However, as the ghosts of the past refuse to lie quiet, a very different revelation awaits her. | | | |
| BEGINNER'S GREEK | James Collins | | Jan. |
| Both incisive and wonderfully funny, this is a brilliantly understated comedy of manners in which love lost is found again. | | | |
| BIG BONED | Meg Cabot | | Dec. |
| So, everything is going just fine - until she finds her third boss in one year facedown in his morning latte. It's business as usual for Heather Wells - who must protect her residents, find her boss's murderer, and clear his name, end the grad students strike, perform at open mic, and still get in shape for the 5K, all while maintaining a 1,500-calorie-per-day diet. Oh, and keep from getting killed. | | | |
| BLONDE FAITH | Walter Mosley | | Oct. |
| Mouse is wanted for murder in the 10th supercharged novel in Mosley's Easey Raulins series of novels. | | | |
| BLOODFEVER | Karen Marie Moning | | Oct. |

| TERROR DREAM | Susan Faludi | | Nov. |
| In this most original examination of America's post-9/11 culture, Susan Faludi shines a light on the country's psychological response to the attacks on the terrible day. Turning her acute observational powers on the media, popular culture, and political life, Faludi unearths a barely acknowledged but bedrock societal drama shot through with baffling contradictions. Brilliant and important, THE TERROR DREAM shows what 9/11 revealed about America. | | | |
| THAMES | Peter Ackroyd | | Oct. |
| THE THAMES is about the river from source to sea, from prehistoric times to the present, its flora and fauna, the paintings and photographs inspired by the Thames, its geology, smells and colours; its literature, laws, magic and myths, its architecture, and weather. | | | |
| THINGS I OVERHEARD WHILE TALKING TO MYSELF | Alan Alda | | Sept. |
| What do I value? What, exactly, is the good life? (And what does that even mean?) Actor and bestselling author Alan Alda faces tough questions as he looks back on paths his life has taken. Alda writes with compassion, humour and heart, as he looks for answers to questions that so many of us have asked ourselves. | | | |
| TIMBUKTU | Marq de Villiers, Sheila Hirtle |  | Oct. |
| During its two Golden Ages, from the 14th century to the early 16th centuries, Timbuktu was a preeminent centre of Islamic scholarship, learning and religion. This spectacular portrait of this amazing city will delight armchair travelers and readers of history and natural history. | | | |
| UNEXPECTED WAR | Janice Gross Stein with Eugene Lang |  | Oct. |
| With our troops now committed until 2009, THE UNEXPECTED WAR exposes the poverty of Canadian foreign policy, arguing that Canada's various military missions in Afghanistan have been ad hoc in nature and made on the basis of political calculations - often flawed - about Canadian-American relations. Drawing upon interviews with key decision makers and advisors, and a first-hand account by a former Defence Ministry insider, the book offers a gripping account of how Canada became embroiled in a new kind of war - fighting insurgency in a failed state. | | | |
| USES AND ABUSES OF HISTORY | Margaret MacMillan |  | Sept. |
| MacMillan illustrates how dangerous history can be in the hands of nationalistic or religious or ethnic leaders who use it to foster a sense of grievance and a desire for revenge. | | | |
| WAR: AN INTIMATE HISTORY, 1941-1945 | Geoffrey C. Ward and Ken Burns | | Sept. |
| As a magnificent companion volume to the fall 2007 PBS series, the vivid voices that speak from these pages are not historians or scholars. They are expert of another kind: American men and women who fought in the battles, inhabited the prisons and internment camps, worked in the armament factories, kept families together while their fathers, brothers, and husbands were shipped off to Europe or the Pacific or North Africa. | | | |

| YOU: STAYING YOUNG | Michael Roizen | Nov. |
| The body is the most fascinating machine ever created, and nobody talks about it in ways that are as illuminating and compelling as Dr. Michael Roizen and Dr. Mehmet Oz. In YOU: STAYING YOUNG, the doctors talk to you about what happens as your body ages. As with their previous books, they've conducted tireless research and will introduce fascinating and crucial information in an unforgettable way. | | |
| ZOOKEEPER'S WIFE | Diane Ackerman | Aug. |
| With her exuberant prose and exquisite sensitivity to the natural world Ackerman engages us viscerally in the lives of the zoo animals. She shows us how Antonina refused to give in to the penetrating fear of discovery even as Europe crumpled around her. A true story - as powerful as Schindler's List - in which the keepers of the Warsaw Zoo saved hundreds of people from Nazi hands. | | |
